The President Killed His Wife Steve Richer

The President has killed his wife. It happened on live TV, during the State of the Union address.

While he's shocked watching from his mansion in Alaska, FBI agent Rogan Bricks chalks it up to a nervous breakdown, he's never particularly cared about politics. But everything changes when he's summoned to Washington to lead the investigation.

Why him? Why is his life suddenly in danger from assassins? And why is everything starting to point toward a conspiracy?
