Twass the Night before Christmas Pam Garlick

Sarah was excited and exhausted both at the same time. She was racing against time, a Christmas tradition. A tradition within a traditions. Each year she purchased thousands of dollars worth of gifts for children living in shelters throughout her community.

Not for anything was she going to let anything ruin her plans. At least until she realized a burgler had stolen all the gifts while she was napping.

However, she awakened on time to catch the red-suited, white furred thief, and she wasn't going to let him get away with one more gift.
