Hers For The Taming

Ever since her father's death, Nina Peterson has been afraid of the outdoors. She swore never to go into the woods again but now, her best friend, who works at a summer camp, has invited her to teach some art lessons and she can't refuse. She can only hope she doesn't run into any bears.

At the camp, she meets Greg and is quickly attracted to his gentleness, a contrast to his muscular build which makes her imagination run wild. Soon, she finds herself falling in love with him, and yet she can't help but feel that he's hiding something. When she finds out, will she still want to keep him? Can she tame his heart and her fears, as well? Or will his secret prove too much for her to bear?
