Introduction

For years, Aziz Ansari has delighted audiences with his hilarious commentary on sex and love in the modern world. So it should come at no surprise that Modern Romance is one of the funniest books of 2015 – but perhaps some readers will be shocked to find that it is also one of the most insightful. Unlike other comedians who fill their pages with recycled bits from their stand-up routine, Aziz was determined to take a more scientific approach. He teamed up with sociologist Erik Klingenberg to design a thoughtful research project that would dive deep into the murky waters of modern dating. Aziz weaves together anecdotes with statistics with advice from the experts, and adds in plenty of his astounding brilliant humor. The result is an endlessly entertaining book that is sure to tell you what you are doing wrong – or right – in your love life.
