One killer has been found, but another has taken his place. The calls continue to trickle in from her dark informant, and Nora has nowhere to turn. When a brilliant man is captured, it's all that Nora can do to separate the truth from fiction, and her own judgment is being called into question.

As Nora recovers from her wounds, she falls back into her old, troubled habit. The only way to find the new killer and break the code of the blood is for her to join forces with an unlikely companion and go against everything that she, as an officer of the law, stands for. Now the chief's son is missing. Will she be able to unlock the door to the mystery, or will Marion once again be plunged into chaos by the force of The Sun?
