The historic Marvel Age of Comics comes to life with this collection of rare, archival-quality poster-sized reproductions of the past. Classic covers are presented in this unique, eco-friendly format for the avid collector as well as the casual fan. Each 20x28 inch poster is printed on premium, archival-quality, 100 percent recycled paper with soy-based inks, and fits in a standard poster frame. Frozen in ice at the end of World War II, Captain America is revived decades later and becomes a member of the Avengers. A man out of time haunted by the memories of his past, Cap eventually settles into the present, often taking the role of Avengers team leader, and establishing himself as the moral center of the Marvel Universe. He regains his own comic book title when the anthology series he shares with Iron Man in the early 1960s, Tales of Suspense, is retitled Captain America and becomes his series alone. (This Monster Unmasked!, April 1968) This is an officially licensed product of Marvel Comics.
