Blood and Hunger (The Vanessa Kensley Series Book 1) Stephanie Marks

Something sinister is hunting the streets of Silverlake City and no one is safe, especially when the police don't have a single lead. But Vanessa Kensley doesn't have time to worry about serial killers. Being a Succubus means she has her own problems to deal with. At least she did, until it started to look like she could be the killer's next target.

Now, drawn deep into the shadows of Silverlake City she finds herself in a world where she no longer has to hide what she is and the vampires become the family that she never thought she would have. But a twisted force threatens to expose their world with a need for death and power, tearing apart the family that she only just found.

Now it's up to her and the Silverlake Coven to put an end to all of the savage killings going on in the city before the darkness closing in around them can claim her first.
