PMBOK Exam Practice Exam: Project Communication Management Knowledge Area Only

This is non-theoretical, linear approach to PMP preparation. Each question is derived from the Project Management Body of Knowledge that sets each of the knowledge area's processes in one exclusive motion of comprehension.

As a PMP practitioner and former instructor of PM methodology at the University of Georgia and Gwinnett Technical College in Lawrenceville, GA, Jeremy Kennedy's test method approach builds understanding of PMI PMBOK processes step by step without the bootcamp clutter. Using multiple choice solutions, each exam is aligned with the goals of the PMP: application, comprehension and memorization of the Project Management Body of Knowledge.

The Project Communications Management practice exam is 37 questions.
