Trojan Pie Tamarin M. Camp

When Harrison goes into the haunted house, what he finds changes his life. Eloise is lonely, she has no pets or family, so when Harrison enters her house, he also enters a very special place in her heart. Together, they find Emcia, a baby in need of a home and family. One day while the three of them are reading, they fall into another land, and a sinister plot. They unwittingly wander into a trap, and are held hostage by creatures smaller than a yardstick. While looking for a way out, they find something else, a very special friendship with each other.
