A Day in the Life of the Soviet Union: Photographed by 100 of the World's Leading Photojournalists on one day, May 15, 1987 Rick and David Cohen Smolen

In the late spring of 1987, the news spread like wildfire through the international photojournalism community: The unimaginable was about to happen. After three years of negotiation, the Day in the Life team had finally obtained permission to photograph the Soviet Union. This book is the result of 50 of the Western world's top photojournalists. The pictures in A Day in the Life of the Soviet Union were chosen from over 127,000 images shot on May 15, 1987. None is 24 hours older or younger than any other. ISBN: 0002179695
