Brasil (Em Portuguese do Brasil) Michael Reid

Espera-se que o Brasil, o quinto maior país em termos de tamanho e a sétima maior economia do mundo atualmente, se torne uma das potências globais mais importantes até 2030. No entanto, vem-se destinando muito mais atenção a outros países em crescimento, como Rússia, Índia e China. Em geral, ignorado e subestimado, o Brasil, de acordo com o renomado e premiado jornalista Michael Reid, finalmente começou a alcançar seu potencial, mas enfrenta importantes desafios antes de se tornar uma nação de substancial importância global. Depois de décadas de regime militar, a quarta democracia mais populosa pôde usufruir de uma liderança reformista eficaz, que combateu a inflação, abriu as portas do país para o comércio exterior e passou a focar problemas como a pobreza e outras questões sociais, permitindo que o Brasil desempenhasse maior papel em questões globais. Porém, à medida que se preparava para sediar a Copa do Mundo de 2014 e que se prepara para os Jogos Olímpicos de 2016, o país vem sofrendo protestos em massa da população. Este livro perspicaz aponta tanto os inúmeros problemas do país - o Estado ineficiente, a profusa corrupção, a política disfuncional e o índice de violência - quanto suas conquistas, com o objetivo de fornecer um retrato geral e completo de um vibrante país, prestes a assumir uma importante posição de comando no cenário mundial.
