Leading for Diversity: Promoting Positive Interethnic Relations Rosemary C. Henze

An excellent component for any diversity training workshop, this video companion demonstrates the four key principles for improving ethnic relations in K-12 schools, through real classroom footage as well as interviews with school leaders, teachers, and students. Though directly tied to the research base and content from the core book, the video can easily be used as a stand-alone product for staff development and training on diversity and interethnic relations for administrators and teachers.
