Everyone makes mistakes when they're young, but some mistakes are more likely to come back and bite you. Especially when a whole town is depending on you. Brandon didn't think much of a short romantic fling with Ashley until five years later when he's running for mayor and she found her way back into his life.

Can they settle the differences that formed over the ten year gap and figure out how to live with the decisions they've made, or will one night of passion ruin ten years of work and the lives they've created for themselves?

WARNING: Contains mature content. Intended for 18+ readers.
