A Journey Into Sin, Sorrow, and Lust

Elsa Gutz, innocent but strong, lives in an isolated Bavarian village, quaint, quiet, and solemn. On the outskirts of her hometown lies the Forbidden Forest, a place her parents always warned her never to go. Childhood myths passed down through the ages depict the Forest as a place of evil and sexual corruption, full of fire breathing dragons, spiteful witches, and the most dangerous of all, an Alpha Wolf, who watches Elsa sleep at night from the forest, his burning green eyes piercing and angry. The forest calls to those who are frail and lusty, given into the temptations of the flesh. All the villagers do their best to remain pure, but the hungry wolves and warlocks entice them without end to enter its borders in order to feast on the pleasures that lie therein.

One day, a blond stranger named Theo, a lion shifter, stumbles out of the forest, battered and bruised, in need of rest and healing with help from Elsa's village. But the man from the forest harbors a terrible secret from his past, and what Elsa soon discovers about Theo may force her to cross the border into that shameful place, putting her sexual purity in the most danger, in order to save him from the Alpha Wolf.

Alpha Wolf's Calling is a standalone romance novel with a happily ever after ending, no cliffhanger, and scenes graphic lovemaking.
