Hi, My Name's Jesus, What's Yours? is a creative collection of eight stories that offer fictional accounts of what might've happened during Jesus's childhood. Dipping into the ancient Jewish world of Nazareth, these tales vividly paint possible experiences the young messiah may have had as a kid.

Cleverly drawing inspiration from the Gospels, author Caroline Grace McAtten imagines the people and events that could foreshadow Jesus's future life or, perhaps, inspire the parables he uses to teach his disciples. Search for hints of the good Samaritan and the prodigal son—you may just find them!

Follow Jesus as he goes on fun fishing adventures, learns how to work with his hands, and enjoys birthday bashes with family and friends. Your kids will love seeing this childlike, playful glimpse of Jesus, and you'll appreciate the godly wisdom expertly woven into each story. Whether you read as a family or at church, these tales are sure to spark your children's spiritual imagination and start rich conversations about God and the Bible.
