This is not a horror story but a fun riff on the movie Stand By Me, which was adapted from Stephen King's novella "The Body." The author, Steve Burt, is a Bram Stoker Award Winner who lived two houses from King in the early 1980s when King had the famous fence and gates built and installed. "Storming Stephen King's" won't make sense unless you know Stand By Me; it's excerpted from Burt's 2004 Bram Stoker Award-winning collection, Oddest Yet. Here, the fictional characters from Stand By Me break into Stephen King's Bangor home to steal his writer's journal and make an unexpected discovery that leads to an unexpected opportunity.
