The Twelfth Five-Year Plan for National Economic and Social Development of the People's Republic of China The Communist Party of China CPC

The Twelfth Five-Year Plan for National Economic and Social Development of the People's Republic of China (2011-2015) was compiled on the basis of the Proposal of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China (CPC) for Formulating the Twelfth Five-Year Plan for National Economic and Social Development. This plan mainly sets forth the state's strategic intentions, clarifies the focus of the government's work and guides the behavior of market players. It is a grand blueprint for China's economic and social development over the next five years; an action plan for the people of all China's ethnic groups; and an important basis for the government to fulfill its duties in economic regulation, market supervision, social administration and public services.
