When a late-night hospital intruder is identified as a professional killer, Thea is convinced her father's accident was no accident and someone plans to finish the job...

Who would want to kill a man who saves lives? and why? The answers, Thea fears, are locked deep inside the mind of the only living witness her father a man who cannot move or speak. Until the flutter of a single eyelid provides him the means to communicate...and offers Thea a terrifying glimpse into an unfathomable conspiracy.
