Love Again T.K. Chapin

When you're in your mid twenties and your spouse dies, how do you move on? That's the question Jill has been asking herself for the last two years since the accident. Unable to enjoy anything or anyone's presence, she's wallowed in her misery until she met Jake. The strapping young man came out to the little town of Suncrest to get his grandfather's affairs in order. When Jill meets Jake, sparks begin to fly and emotions she hadn't felt in years surface. Could true love come more than once in a lifetime? Jill wasn't sure if it could, but she did not want to let it pass her by. A Christmas Romance story that will be sure to tug on your heart strings.
