$100,000,000. That's how much money Harry Seaburn, small-time thief and desperate romantic, must steal to stay alive. And it's not as easy as it sounds. Not for Harry.

Two great criminal syndicates want to crush him as irritating competition for the money. The girl he rescues from suicide and falls in love with tries to kill him for the money. The man he accidentally made chief of Miami crime seals him up in a suffocating bunker to stop his following the money's trail. And the exotic water-filled diamond he steals for the world's most dangerous woman to save himself from her revenge proves less valuable than a piece of glass that can convict the professional assassin who holds Harry's life in his hands.
