The Short, Spectacular Indie-Publishing Career of Matilda Walter: A Short Story Sandra Hutchison
Absent-minded direct mail clerk Walter Mitty fantasizes about instant fame and riches as the self-published author of a hot romance (though this short story is actually a sweet romance, or at most a slightly tart one). Too bad Wally can't stop revising that first sex scene. Fortunately, her colleague Jonathan is enthusiastic about helping -- but that doesn't mean their happy ending is going to come from book sales. This charming romantic comedy set in the world of self-publishing includes revenge against a mean boss, lucky love, the requisite ripped male abs, and cake.
