The Black Rose: And Other Scary Stories That Really Happened To Me! Noemi Gamel

This collection contains four scary stories inspired by the folktales commonly heard along the border of Texas and Mexico. Most children in that region and beyond are familiar with the tales of “La Llorona” and “Dancing With A Ghost”. "The Black Rose And Other Scary Stories That Happened To Me" offers a similar style of horror that will leave the reader wondering if the events are real. Narrated in first person, the stories begin when the main character, Alissa, is 10 years old and conclude during the summer after her college graduation. Follow Alissa as seemingly unrelated supernatural events haunt her through out her life. Appropriate for ages 7 and up.
